

An Epiphany song of following a star

A New Year song of upholding justice and rights and truth

A commitment song of this year, touching God's heavenly cause for us.

Sung by the London Community Gospel Choir

From Don Quixote

To dream the impossible dream
To fight the unbeatable foe
To bear the unbearable sorrow
To run where the brave dare not go

To right the un-rightable wrong
To be better by far than you are
To try when your arms are too weary
To reach the unreachable star

This is our quest, to follow that star
No matter how hopeless,
No matter how far

To fight for the right
Without question or pause
To be willing to march into hell
For a heavenly cause

And I know if I'll only be true
To this glorious quest
That my heart will be peaceful and calm
When I'm laid to my rest

And the world would be better for this
That one man (Jesus) scorned and covered with scars
Still strove with his last ounce of courage
To reach the unreachable
The unreachable
The unreachable star

To dream the impossible dream

To reach the unreachable star!

And then, he placed it in our hands and said...now, you do it.

(and the disciples said to Jesus, how can we feed all these people, there must be 5,000 of them. What will you do? And Jesus said to the disciples; 'You do it'.)

And they did.
